

Giggles Indoor Play area sold to experienced operator

After a completing within a month, Mr Sam Lighting has added the Giggles indoor play area to his portfolio of children's activity Centres. The popular Bagshot based activity centre becomes the third setting under his ownership as he looks to build on the success of his existing activity centres.

Vendor Danielle Ross has sold the business she acquired through Redwoods Dowling Kerr so she can relocate.

Giggles Indoor Play is based in Surrey on the borders of Hampshire and Berkshire, within close proximity to the M3 and town centre.

The play area is well known within the locality for being an ideal party venue, typically hosting between 6-8 parties a week. The café and seating area are open plan and give good views of the play frame from all areas for the parent's peace of mind.

Giggles Indoor Play attracts a large, regular and loyal customer base, along with an excellent reputation not only locally but also further afield with many new customers coming via word of mouth or social media such as Facebook.

The main play frame is arranged over two and three levels and is adjacent to the café seating area and main entrance area.

The play centre was purpose built and can accommodate up to a maximum of 120 children at any one time on the main play frame, as this is for children over the age of two due to there being a dedicated toddler frame and soft play area for babies.

Karrina from Redwoods Dowling Kerr said: “The setting has been acquired by an experienced activity centre operator, who I am sure will continue to have success and develop the business”. “We are delighted to have been able to assist Mrs Ross for the second time and wish her luck with the relocation”.
