Ainsworth Post Office Sold to Corporate Buyer

Kings Business are pleased to announce the sale of Ainsworth Post Office, a well-established, profitable business located in Elton, Bury.

Ainsworth Post Office has operated successfully since the 1990's, the business has a strong relationship with the local community and is heavily relied upon. The retail space is fitted to a very high standard which was an attractive selling point for the buyer.

The vendor placed the business on the market due to their wish to retire, Kings Business presented the vendor with a number of viewings along with two offers.

The corporate buyer has previous experience within this sector, one of the attractions to the post office was its prime trading location, the business is situated within a densely populated residential area providing a regular source of custom.

The buyer commented on their experience: 'Thank you for all your hard work from myself and my family'. 'We are very grateful to have completed the purchase and with your help it has been possible'.
